Bulletin No. 1

March 1, 1938

Pursuant to the Provisions of Article V of the Constitution of the Wisconsin Federation of Stamp Clubs, I hereby call for a Convention, at Madison, Wisconsin, for a period of three days, April 29 and 30 and May 1. The business meeting of the Federation is planned to sit in convention Saturday, April 30, at 3 P. M. to consider such legislation as may be proposed, and the election of officers for the Federation for the ensuing year.

Pursuant to the custom of our Federation, I hereby appoint, by and with the advice of this year's Host Club, the following Committee:

General Chairman	Leo. B. Levenick, 1817 University Avenue
Finance	Verne P. Laub, 2416 Gregory Street
Program	George M. Morris, 1805 University Avenue
Auction	H. O. Pinther, 2263 E. Washington Avenue
Publicity	Vern Davies, 513 W. Main Street
Exhibitions	George M. Morris, 1805 University Avenue
Entertainment	Mrs. Kemper Slidell, Mrs. M. F. Hartman
Reservations	C. W. Hilliard
Registrations	Frances Ryan

I further appoint the following Committee of Credentials:

VERNE P. KAUB	SILAS M. SPENGLER
CHARLES A. ACHTENBERG	ALBERT W. DRAVES
OLAF A. OLSEN

All clubs are requested to be positive that they are accredited clubs of the Federation which in short means that the proper dues have been paid.

The Madison Club expects every member club individual to start now to make this convention the biggest affair of all. Harry Lindquist promises to attend and we hope this convention will be broadcast on a national hook-up "Calling All Stamp Collectors."

Announcing herewith the first issue of the Wisconsin Collector, published by Bill Wydallis, 89 Parkway, Oshkosh. Last year, only 7 persons out of 738 expressed a wish for a bulletin, but I feel that our Federation can have a bulletin at a small cost. Our Federation is on record on this subject, so let me know if anyone will pay 25c a year for a monthly bulletin (Sheboygan amendment) or if any printer wishes to submit a lower bid than Bill.

More news soon—but Madison is the right word just now. MADISON APRIL 30.

Attest: Claude W. Degler, Secretary.

ALBERT W. DRAVES, President.
